

Praying for the 7 Centers of Influence

Power – Government

1. For righteousness and justice in every sector of government
2. For godly, uncompromising Christians to be elected to office
3. That our President, our Governor, or Mayor be directed by God
4. For righteous, just, God honoring decisions by our courts
5. That US and State House and Senate would be directed by God

Riches – Business, finance

1. That businessmen would put God first before profit
2. That businessmen would be good and fair to employees
3. That businesses would be ethical and honor God in their dealings
4. That God will greatly bless those businesses that give to His Kingdom

Wisdom – Education

1. That God raise up godly teachers and school administrators
2. That school boards be filled with those who espouse godly values
3. That our schools will be a breeding ground for revival
4. That God will bring our children and young people to Himself

Strength – Family

1. That husbands would love their wives as Christ loved the Church
2. That wives would learn to respect their husbands, to love their children
3. That husbands and wives be faithful to each other, cleaving to one another
4. That parents would teach and train their children in the things of God

Honor – Religion

1. That churches and Christians return to their first love
2. That pastors and church leaders teach and preach the whole council of God
3. That churches will be agents of change in our society
4. That the Spirit of Christ would overtake any religious spirits in our churches
5. That people would find freedom from addictions and strongholds of satan

Glory – Arts and Entertainment

1. That the production of God honoring movies and TV shows would increase
2. That those spreading lawlessness and godlessness through entertainment would not prosper in their pursuits
3. That Christians in Arts and Entertainment will have a spirit of excellence

Blessing – the Media, or good news

1. That more and more of our media will openly honor the Lord
2. That God will place god fearing individuals as decision makers in media
3. That more and more of the media would lean towards godly values
4. That our newspapers, radio stations and online news will be God honoring
