

Prayers for Coweta & the 7 Centers of Influence
Rev. 5:12

Power – Government

1. For righteousness and justice in every sector of county government
2. For godly, uncompromising Christians to be elected to office
3. That County Commissioners, county and city law enforcement officers, and city mayors be directed by the Lord with a desire to serve both God and their fellow men and women
4. For righteous, just God honoring decisions by our municipal and superior courts
5. That all administrative personnel working for any level of government would be anointed with efficiency and a godly work ethic
6. For all those who work in our law enforcement community, that they too may honor the Lord and do His will in every aspect of their job, acting with justice and integrity
7. For the people working in the prison and jail systems, including the juvenile justice system, in the County to show compassion and justice to those under their authority and to work towards their restoration
8. That the people of Coweta County would have an increasing desire to serve the Lord and to honor Him by keeping all our laws and that all aspects of crime would steadily decrease, including violent crimes and crimes related to gangs
9. That all would honor God by seeking to protect the environment and that efforts to do such things as recycle, reduce emissions, conserve resources, etc would flourish in our County
10. That the nonprofits operating in our County would honor the Lord in their missions and operations truly serving the people for their ultimate betterment.

Riches – Business & Finance

1. That businessmen would put God first before profit
2. That the Lord would reward His people and their businesses with favor and increased prosperity
3. That businessmen would be good and fair to their employees, and seek their welfare
4. That all would follow Jesus' model of servant leadership to those working for them at every level of the organization
5. That all in the business arena would be ethical and honor God in all their dealings
6. That God would greatly bless those businesses that give to His kingdom and act honorably and ethically for the good of their customers
7. That businesses in the medical field would operate according to the Lord's heart of care and compassion for those they serve, striving to bring healing to all as their first priority
8. That the spirit of immorality in the business arena would be restrained

Wisdom – Education

1. That the Lord raise up and anoint Godly teachers and school administrators
2. That all our school employees would have a spirit of excellence and diligence teaching and training the children of our county
3. That the Lord will bring our children and young people to Himself
4. That school boards would be filled with those who espouse Godly values
5. That children and youth serving Christian organizations would be anointed by the Lord to nurture the children they serve in love
6. That our children would understand the value of being educated and would be diligent in their studies
7. That the Lord would protect our schools from every form of violence and ungodly coercion
8. That Coweta County would be place where children thrive and have all their needs met

Strength – Family

1. That God would strengthen His people, both adults and children, in every aspect of their family relationships
2. That husbands and wives would love and honor their marriage partners throughout their entire married lives
3. That husbands and wives be faithful to each other, cleaving to one another
4. That parents would nurture their children with the love of the Father.
5. That parents would teach and train their children in the things of God
6. That children would learn from their parents, and honor and respect them
7. That families would be delivered from poverty and would have access to increasing resources
8. That families would honor and care for their elderly
9. That the Lord would help those in their families who suffer from illness, including mental illness, and bring His care and healing to them
10. That the Lord would strengthen families to resist and would deliver them from all forms of addiction, including alcohol, drugs, tobacco, pornography, and gambling
11. That the Lord would enable people to forgive one another
12. That Coweta County would be a place where we care for those among us who are orphans or abandoned by family or the elderly.

Honor – Religion

1. That the Body of Christ throughout every congregation in the county grow in their love for one another and mature in unity, even as Jesus prayed that we would BE ONE.
2. That churches and Christians will return to their first love and be constantly growing and maturing in their relationship with the Lord
3. That the level of worship would be constantly deepening and increasing
4. That Christians and the Congregations of Coweta would be agents of change throughout the county
5. That a Spirit of prayer would fall on the Body of Christ in Coweta County
6. That the Body of Christ in Coweta County would be anointed by the Holy Spirit for evangelism, and the lost come to Christ
7. That those being won to Christ would join a local congregation and be disciplined in the Lord
8. That the Spirit of Christ would overcome any religious spirits in our congregations
9. That more and more resources, including money, would be given to the Body of Christ in the County
10. That the Word of God would be preached with passion, power and truth in all our congregations
11. That the Spirit of Truth would be poured out throughout our County and overcome the false spirits of cults and false religions, and that the Lord would deliver our County from sorcery and witchcraft and every form of evil.

Glory - Arts & Entertainment

1. That the production of God honoring movies, TV shows, and music would increase
2. That those spreading lawlessness and godlessness through entertainment would not prosper in their pursuits and their business ventures would not succeed
3. That Christians in Arts and Entertainment would have a spirit of excellence
4. That the Lord would cause those who honor Him in their art and entertainment pursuits would be increasingly supported by the people of God
5. That the Lord would deliver the people of Coweta County from the pleasure seeking spirit of our culture
6. That pornography would lose its hold in Coweta County
7. Incline our hearts to wholesome entertainment; may we find great delight in beholding the Lord's beauty
8. Establish good alternatives for our children and youth
9. May school productions and the focus of our art in Coweta County bring glory to God's Name

Blessing – Media

1. That more and more of our media will openly honor the Lord
2. That God will place and anoint God honoring people in local newspapers and radio, particularly decision makers
3. That those in the media would be able to resist the spirit of this age
4. That our newspapers, radio stations, and online news would be God honoring
5. That the news would be reported truthfully and honestly
